

Breakfast Meeting

Bikesharing and the City – How can dockless systems contribute to sustainable urban transport?

Wednesday, 27 June 2018, 08:30am-11:00am

Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands
Klosterstraße 50
10179 Berlin

PROGRAMME

Moderation: Jasmijn Lodder, Senior Advisor Environment and Mobility, Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands
08:30 – 09:00	Breakfast and Networking
09:00 – 09:15	Introduction Dockless bikesharing and the city Alexander Jung, Senior Associate New Mobility, Agora Verkehrswende
09:15 – 10:00	Keynote Dockless bikesharing – Experiences in the Netherlands Bart Christiaens, Bicycle Policy Coordinator, City of Rotterdam
10:00 – 11:00	Panel Discussion How can dockless bikesharing systems contribute to sustainable urban transport? Bart Christiaens, Bicycle Policy Coordinator, City of Rotterdam Julius Menge, Berlin Senate Department for the Environment, Transport and Climate Protection Kacper Winiarczyk, General Manager for DACH and CEE, ofo Melissa Gómez, Transport Research Consultant, German Cyclist's Association (ADFC) Sebastian Schlebusch, Director International Business Development, nextbike